Youth Development League action resumed on Sunday as the Under 13 and Under 15 squad took on the best teams in the south, with a fourth-place finish at Tonbridge School.

The Under 15 Girls performed strongly. Zoe McLean-Tattan won the hammer and was discus runner up and her B string partners Eboni Roach (discus) and Grace Tillson (hammer) were both second. The other throws harvested a rich crop of points as Emily Quinlan won the B javelin, with Scarlett Woods third in the A, and Maisie Lee's PB won the B shot.

Mya Thomas improved her best to win the B 200m and also added a 100m PB for B string second, as Leila Jones was second in the B 300m and Amy Mansell third in the A, also adding long jump second place. Maggie Smith (PB) and Oma Nwapa were both third in the hurdles and Oma equalled her best for third in the high jump. Fisola Fagbadegun, who improved her 100m & 200m PBs, combined with Leila Jones, Laine Forrester Smith and Mya Thomas to place second in the sprint relay.

The Under 15 boys produced some excellent result and a glut of PBs. Freddie Rowe's impressive finish won the 1500m in a huge new PB, and Stevie Reynolds made it full points in the B, also with a new best. Findlay McLaren also took chunks off his PB to finish second, with Shea Sweeney also second in the B. Joel Ajayi powered to 200m victory and was second in the 100m, both in PBs, as Jake Shaw was third in the 100m B in a new best. Zak Williams won the javelin and William Tilson was third in the B and more good throws points came from Luca Gregory who was second in the hammer, and James Mallon and James Campbell, both third in the shot. Oliver Pullen (long jump) and Ryan Alexander (high jump) were both third.

The inexperienced Under 13 Girls squad were competing at this level for the first time and did well, despite no wins. Bel Drake starred finishing second in both the 75m and 150m sprints, with times that rank her in the club all-time top 10, and also placed second in the long jump. Isabella Taylor-Bush was second in the B 1200m and Emmie Lole's strong last lap placed her third in the A. Sophia-Rae Ahmad (high jump), Callie Ziepe (shot) and Jasmine Asmal (javelin) were also third. Tia Ofori, Emmie Lole, Scarlett Lecomber and Bel Drake were third in the sprint relay.

The Under 13 Boys squad only had seven athletes but they covered all but one event between them. Harrison Rabess was the only winner with victory in the shot, but there were three runners up spots for Jayden Wilkinson, in the 200m, high jump and javelin, and third places for Emmanuel Olubukola-Sogbetun (100m B & 800m B) and Oliver West (800m A).

The fixtures come thick and fast with round two at Bracknell in two weeks (21 May) with the squad hoping to welcome back some athletes who missed out on Sunday due to other commitments.
