Havering's Under 17 and Under 20 squad got their season off to a good start with a third place finish in bright and breezy conditions at Tonbridge School on Sunday.

Just a day after winning Essex Under 20 Men's pentathlon gold Patrick McLean-Tattan was in action competing in another five events setting PBs in four, with two wins and three runners up spots. Jacob Blanc bounced back after hitting the first hurdle hard and stopping in his speciality 400m hurdles to win the 200m B race in close to his best, and combined with Calvin Sanni, Charlie Howell and Ayo Babatunde for second in the sprint relay. There was also a runner up spot for the 4 x 400m quartet of Matthew Blacklock, Charlie Howell, Under 17 Oscar Shearing and Shane Hart, who had earlier placed second in the 800m.

There were eight victories for the Under 17 Men's squad. Sam Mahoney won the 800m A string and Daniel Lammas won the B race but team mate Oscar Shearing, running as a non-scorer was first across the line in a new PB. In the 1500m Owen Fisher was A string runner up and Oliver Taylor-Bush won the B string, and added B high jump victory. Nathan Hart was another B string winner in the 400m and Jeffrey Fenoo won the long jump B event. Javelin throwers Bobby Williams and Matthew Page took full points in the A & B events and Matthew was B shot runner up in a new PB. Both relay teams were second thanks to Leon Bengo, Reece Malcolm, Jeffrey Fenoo and Chris Agnimel in the sprint relay, and Nathan Hart, Joshua Lee-Prime, Jeffrey Fenoo (again) and Daniel Lammas, who had earlier also placed second in the triple jump.

The Under 17 Women's team recorded nine wins. Stephanie Okoro again starred winning the 300m hurdles and then beating Croydon's national indoor hurdles champion Lia Bonsu in the sprint hurdles event, clocking the fourth fastest ever time by a club U17. Ruby Tillson won the B hurdles, and was high jump runner up, a day after winning Essex pentathlon bronze. Katie Ennis won the hammer, closing in on the club record, and won the discus, and was well supported by Tilly Bunn who won the B discus and was B string hammer runner up in a PB, to rank in the all-time U17 hammer top 10. The javelin again produced good points as Lucy Quinlan was second in the A and Emily Fessey Cook won the B on her club debut. Lucy Natrass comfortably won the 300m B, and Miriam Adebayo was second in the A, later anchoring the 4 x 300m relay squad to victory after Stephanie Okoro, Charlotte and Hannah Evans led from the gun.

The Under 20 Women's team were small in number but produced some good results. Olivia Boachie won her first outdoor 400m of the year with a strong finish, and Natalie Sewell was a comfortable winner of the 800m. Hannah Yexley was second as was Karis Thomas in the 200m B. Olivia and Karis were joined in the sprint relay by Under 17s Precious Fagbadegun, who earlier set a 100m PB, and Miriam Adebayo, to place a good second.

Crawley edged out hosts Tonbridge for victory, with Havering comfortable in third. The second of the four match series is at Woodford on Saturday 28th May.
