

Essex Cross Country League – Rd 4 – Hilly Fields Colchester Sat 10th Jany

There were two individual and two team victories for Haivering athletes as the fourth of the five round Essex Cross Country League season was held at Colchester's Hilly Fields course.

Findlay McLaren's second successive win in the Under 17 Men's race, ahead of teammate Sam Horseley, led the team's third win and ensured that Haivering have already won the league title with one match to spare, as team positions are based on the best of the four matches. Shea Sweeney was a fine fifth and Sean Mugagga in 12th and Liam Battrum in 19th also competed.

Essex champion Kate O'Neill cruised to victory in the Senior Women's race in her first league outing this winter. Lydia Smith was ninth in her first race since last February and Morgan Campbell in 16th and Robyn Matson's 17th place finish saw the team settle for second on the day. Charlotte Evans (36th), Clare Rudgley (76th), Jane Hallam (104th) and Tracy O'Neill 118th also saw action. Haivering have a narrow lead heading into the final fixture which will see the club go head to head with Chelmsford and Colchester Harriers in a three-way fight for the title.

The Senior Men notched up their first win of the winter, edging out Colchester Harriers on count back. Chander Dhillon (5th), James Stewart (8th), Kieran O'Hara (11th) and Sam Atkins all made the top 20, and Andrew Adebusoye and Rob Warner in 24th and 25th were the other scorers. John Whitehead in 46th, Graham Pritchard in 63rd and John Barker 87th made the top 100 with Tony Pecoraro 123rd, Gary Atkins (135th), Steve Walker (154th) and Roy James (184th) the other finishers.

The Under 13 Girls were again runners up to the unbeaten SS Athletics squad who confirmed the title. Molly Jenkinson-Smith was first home in ninth, with Lucy Tregidgo 14th and 18th placed Esther Oyemike and Eleanor Fair (21st) the other Haivering scorers. Emilia Curley and Isla Herrera were 22nd and 25th.

The Under 13 Boys' team were third with Harrison Sewell in seventh and James Fenn both in the top 10, with Austin Broadhurst and Alex Stokes 20th and 21st the other scorers. Also competing were Joseph Legg (28th), Parker Swaisland (31st) Jack Rushworth (33rd) and James Campbell 41st.

There was another impressive turn out for Under 15 Boys with 11 in action as the team again placed third. First home was Jake Tregidgo in ninth with Henry Wakeling 19th, and Jack Rossington 21st and Callum Millard Jennings 25th completing the scoring quartet. Oliver Rushworth and Cruz Carvell made the top 30, with Thomas Swan, Stephen Hunt, and Luke Brewington making the top 40. Aidan Fairfax and Rhys Cullum also competed.

Ruby Beasley in sixth flew the flag for the Under 17 Women affected by a clash with a school as were the Under 15 Girls with Evie Green in 27th the only club competitor. In the Under 11 competition Luke Hathaway was 20th placed boy and Amelia Bright and Ava Lynch were ninth and 19th for the girls.

The league season concludes at Basildon on 7th February while next week's cross country action sees club athletes competing for their borough teams at the Essex Schools Championships at Writtle University College.
